Upcoming Membership Meetings

We meet at 1:30 p.m. in the Ryerson Auditorium of the Grand Rapids Public Library on the first Saturday of the month, September through June. Should the first Saturday fall on a holiday weekend, another day will be scheduled. Unless a special program, each meeting has a one-hour lecture on a genealogy related subject by a knowledgeable speaker. Books and charts are sold at our meetings and a "Hospitality Hour" follows.

All meetings are free and open to the public

Finding Your Immigrant Ancestors
Presenter: Jessica Trotter

America is a nation of immigrants but it's not always easy to track our ancestors back to a boat, let alone their town of origin. This presentation offers tips and resources for your search with ideas for: what types of records might include origins, strategies for working with whole families, and important factors to keep in mind depending on the time period you are researching.

Jessica Trotter holds a Master of Science in Information, Archives and Records Management Specialization from the University of Michigan—but works in public libraries by day. Her genealogy research areas include Midwest, African American, British Isles, Canadian, and Early American research. She also maintains a genealogy research related blog called Genie Road Trip at http://genieroadtrip.wordpress.com.

Genealogy Lock-In
Friday, March 13, 2020
6:00 p.m.—10:00 p.m.

Come to the Grand Rapids History and Special Collections Department for a free after-hours program just for genealogists. Learn how to use the library databases, newspaper microfilm and other resources, and take advantage of free copying and printing during the event.

Bring your family history questions or problems—volunteers from the Western Michigan Genealogical Society will be on hand to assist. Network with other genealogists—you never know what you might find. Registration required: www.grpl.org/register or call 616-988-5400.

A genuine History Detective will be driving to Grand Rapids. His destination will be the March 7 meeting of the Western Michigan Genealogy Society. His name is Chris Czopek. His place will be among Grand Rapids area genealogists. His purpose will be to reveal a recently discovered new source of information on Native American families in Michigan – Civil War pension files!

In time of war, Native American men have always volunteered to fight for their land. The Civil War was no different. When a soldier fell on the field of a battle, his widow could apply for a pension. Same thing for a son who was the sole source of support for his mother. And the surviving soldiers still alive in the 1890s could receive a pension. But there was always one catch – documents! The government insisted on marriage records from the widows, birth records from the mothers, and for the old soldiers receiving a pension, the government asked they list the wife and children and give their birthdates. All those rare documents sent in for a pension still exist, buried in archives in Washington D.C. For the Native American community, those Pension Files are a gold-mine of information!

On March 7, an expert on these Pension Files will make a rare public appearance. He will bring with him a list of over 100 available pension files. And he will talk about what kind of documents they contain. Expect to hear some interesting stories about the Chippewa, Ottawa, and Potawatomi families of Michigan!

Chris grew up in Michigan during the Civil War Centennial. As a boy, he would watch a Civil War movie on TV – then go to the library and find out how much of the story was true. This was the beginning of his career as a “history detective”. After college he worked for a newspaper, joined the army and served six years in Military Intelligence, volunteered for an archaeological dig in Israel, worked as a tour guide at the State Capitol Building in Lansing, a photographer for the State Senate, and in the offices of the Michigan State Police. He lives in Lansing with his wife, Bonnie. In recent years Chris has become well known to Michigan historians for his expert research of Civil War soldiers. Called “Lansing’s History Detective” by the Lansing State Journal, he has published several books on Civil War history and has been a consultant for The History Channel. His most recent project, a documentary titled ROAD TO ANDERSONVILLE, is the first film to tell the story of Company K.

Chris is best known as the author of Who Was Who In Company K, the first book to give solid facts about the Native American men who served in the 1st Michigan Sharpshooters. He has copies of his book to sign and sell after every program!

Genealogy—It’s Not Greek to Me
Presenter: Rozlyn Kelly

Rozlyn Kelly will discuss how to conduct genealogical research starting with oral history and locating documentation to support, explain or further the oral history. She will present a case study of an interracial couple, a Canadian born free black who serves in the US Civil War and marries a German immigrant, and their pioneering travels in the late 1800s.

Rozlyn Kelly is an attorney with over 20 years of genealogical research experience focused on African American ancestry in Michigan, Canada, Southern Illinois, Kentucky, and Washington, D.C. She is currently President of the Farmington Genealogical Society and serves on the executive board of the Michigan Genealogical Council as recording secretary.

Speaker Information – Susan Rabick
Susan Rabick has been working on her family genealogy for more than forty years. She is a member of and volunteer for the Western Michigan Genealogical Society and belongs to half a dozen genealogical societies. Susan is well-versed in strategies of organization, basic research, on-line research, and critical thinking. She is passionate about helping people researching their family histories.

Black Family History Series (co-sponsor: WMGS)

Saturdays, February 8, 15, 22, 10:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Vander Veen Center for the Book—Main Library

What parent or grandparent hasn’t been asked where they came from, what their job was, or how they met their spouse? While these family history questions are universal, answers can be challenging to find. This is especially true for African Americans interested in their family history.

Join us for a series of workshops that will help you learn about and document your family’s genealogical history. Hosted by local genealogist Joyce Daniels, the series will help you investigate your roots and connect with others around family history.

Registration is not required, however a lunch will be provided if you RSVP to rsvp@grpl.org.

Saturday, February 8: Genealogy Databases, Researching African American Records (Slave Schedules, Agricultural Schedules, Freedman’s Bureau)

Saturday, February 15: Jessica Trotter will be conducting a hands-on project with the Decennial Census records and how and what has changed each year. How obituaries show African American customs and provide genealogy information and family connection. How to make the City Directory help connect African American families.

Saturday, February 22: Tracking your African American family on the underground railroad.
2020 WMGS Writing Contest
~ A Memorable Trip or Journey ~

Travel is a part of many family experiences and the stories that come from the trips we and our ancestors have made shape us into who we have become. Write a story about a memorable trip or journey.

Suggestions for possible topics include:
• Immigration to another country
• Forced immigration or migration
• Migration from one area to another
• Taking a vacation to visit a loved one
• Visiting a place that holds significant meaning for your family
• Taking a trip back to the “old country” or an original homestead

Write it up and enter the 2020 WMGS Writing Contest.
The Western Michigan Genealogical Society has worked for over 60 years to educate researchers in evaluating and citing sources. Your story may inspire someone else to use new research techniques or discover a unique resource. The 2020 WMGS Writing Contest will recognize unpublished excellent genealogical writing by awarding substantial prizes. Prize winning entries will be published in Michigana. Like all submissions to Michigana, entries will be thoroughly edited before publication. Information about submitting any article to Michigana can also be found in the latest issue of Michigana, or at wmgs.org.

Rules for the WMGS Writing Contest

Eligibility: All family historians and genealogists, except the Michigana Editor and judges, are invited to submit their favorite story for the contest. There is no entry fee and membership in WMGS is not required.

Length: Stories should be between 1,500 and 3,000 words in length. Please cite your sources by using endnotes and attach copies of documentation when appropriate. Family group sheets and pedigree charts should be included if pertinent. Endnotes, documentation, photograph descriptions, or chart information will be included in the word count.

Formats: Entry must be completed in Microsoft Word. IMPORTANT: If you include your photographs, charts, or graphics within your document, please also send them separately as 300 dpi tif or jpeg files.

Identification: Include the story title, your name, mailing address, phone number, and approximate word count in the body of the email. This information will only be used to identify and notify the winners. Other than the title, this information does not need to be included within your entry.

Deadline: Entries will be accepted between January 1 & March 31, 2020.
Email your submission to michigana@wmgs.org with “WMGS Writing Contest 2020” written in the Subject Line

Notification: Contest winners will be announced at the June 2020 Membership Meeting, on the WMGS Facebook Page, and in the next available issue of Michigana. Each entrant will also receive an email with the results of the WMGS Writing Contest at the time of the announcement. Winners do not have to be present to win. Prize winning articles will be published in future issues of Michigana. By submitting articles, authors are giving WMGS one-time print and digital rights; copyright is retained by the author. Entries may not have been previously published. All prizes may not be awarded.

Prizes:
1st prize: $100 and 1 annual WMGS membership (total value - $120);
2nd prize: $75 and 1 annual WMGS membership (total value - $95);
3rd prize: $50; 4th prize: $25

For further information or any questions about the Writing Contest, please contact Julie DeVisser, Michigana Editor, at michigana@wmgs.org

Want help or feedback?
The WMGS Writers Group meets the third Tuesday of the month and we would love to help you make your story the best that it can be.

WMGS WRITERS GROUP

This group meets the THIRD TUESDAY every month from 1:30 to about 3:45 p.m. at the Dominican Center. The Writers Group holds supportive meetings for everyone who wants to learn more about organizing and writing family history. We take time to informally discuss questions relevant to each person’s work, provide helpful, non-judgmental feedback on current or on-going writing projects, discover new research techniques, and have fun making new friends.

Genealogy is more than “names and dates.” An ancestor’s story or a personal memory are even more fascinating and enlightening. But some genealogists don’t know how to begin, while others just need a deadline to kick start their creative juices. The Writers Group can fulfill both of these needs.

February: Describe a significant misconception you’ve had (genealogical or otherwise) & how you discovered it.

March: Movies often remind us of our family or one of its members. Write about a movie you saw and how it jogged your memory.

April: Were you the oldest, youngest, the middle child or an only child? Which would you have preferred and why? How did it affect your life.

PLANNING ON ATTENDING?

Those who attend are encouraged to bring several copies of a Work-In-Progress (WIP), but it’s certainly not a requirement and everyone is invited to participate in the discussion. We have a suggested topic for each meeting to help kick-start our writing, but if you are working on a family history, a story about how you discovered an ancestor, or an article for the 2020 Writing Contest you’re welcome to get feedback on that instead. This year our topics are focused on more on our personal history and what we’ve experienced in order to preserve it for our children, relatives and local history.

Members include those who are just starting to write and others who have been working on their genealogy for some time. Everyone is welcome - newbies with fresh ideas, and seasoned vets whose pens have been in the trenches for some time. If you plan to attend, please let Sister Michael Ellen Carling know you will be there. Call her at 616-514-3231 (home), or 616-514-3340 (office) and her email address is mecarling@grdominicans.org. This gives her an estimate of the number of chairs to set up. She’s also the person to call if you have any questions or need more specific directions.
